

Coming to Les Achards

We are located halfway between Gap and Grenoble.

By road

Coming from the north

From Grenoble (50 Km)

The shortest route is along the Napoleon road (RN 85) via Vizille and La Mure.

After La Mure, leave the RN 85 and head towards Mens, crossing the Ponsonnas bridge.

At the end of the bridge, turn left towards Châtel-en-Trièves (winding road); cross the villages of Saint-Sébastien and Cordéac. The hamlet of Achards is located about 2 km after the village of Cordéac following the road D 66.

Alternatively (longer journey) it is possible to take the A 51 from Grenoble to Monestier-de-Clermont (toll). At the end of the A 51, at the roundabout, follow the direction of Mens (road D 34). In Mens, follow the direction of Cordéac (road D 66) through the col de Saint-Sébastien.

Coming from the south

From Gap (50 Km)

Follow the RN85 through the Bayard pass to Corps. At the exit of Corps turn left, direction Pellafol and Superdévoluy (road D 537). After crossing the Drac at the Sautet dam, turn right onto the D66 road towards Cordéac. Cross Les Payas and La Croix de la Pigne. The hamlet of Les Achards is located about 12 km from Corps. La Casa des Achards is on the left, 300 metres after the Achards mill.

Alternatively, you can take the D1075 via the Col de la Croix-Haute. Leave the D1075 at Saint-Maurice-en-Trièves in the direction of Prébois and Mens (road D 253). In Mens follow the direction of Cordéac (road D 66) through the col de Saint-Sébastien.
